

PhD Candidate Mara Albrecht from the University of Erfurt Germany visits LERC

Thursday 10th November 2011

Reported by Elie Nabhan

Mara Albrecht is a PhD candidate in Middle Eastern History at the University of Erfurt, Germany, where she is also Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Philosophy, West Asian History. She is working on the cultural aspect of three political parties in Lebanon: Al Kataeb, Hezbollah and the Progressive Socialist Party. She assisted Ms. Hourani in her research on the Kurds of Essen in Germany by providing published material. She visited LERC to present the Center with two published items of material on the topic.