

The Fourth Kozhaya and Nora Akiki Internship Grant Awarded to Michel Ghanem

Maritta SISLIAN

Since its establishment, the Lebanese Emigration Research Center (LERC) at Notre Dame University-Louaize (NDU) has always been active in providing internships for interested local and international students. Mr. Kozhaya Akiki, a staunch supporter of the Center since its inception, has continued to provide opportunities for young graduates through the “Kozhaya and Nora Akiki Internship Grant.”

After the success of the previous Internship Grants, the fourth opportunity was awarded to Mr. Michel Ghanem.

Mr. Ghanem was selected as the winner of the US$ 1,000 Kozhaya and Nora Akiki Internship Grant and is currently serving as an Intern at the LERC.

Mr. Ghanem is grateful to the Akiki family for this invaluable opportunity and hopes that others will follow his example.
