Biography

Carol Challita is a Lecturer at the Department of Architecture FAAD, NDU-Louaize.

She received her Master degree in Fashion Design Retail at the Milano Fashion Institute-MFI, Italy 2011. Her main focus is within the Retail industry in Fashion Design, where she gets to research and study the primary demand of the market after which she would submit her offer by carefully designing it to fit the needs of consumers, granting her design the sufficient communication needed.

Being an NDU Alumni herself with a B.A in Fashion Design, she was one of the first students to ever graduate from the program, during which she has followed the steps of the learning process of becoming a Fashion Designer and now applies her studies and experience in the field within her course lectures to help in the learning process of students.
