Biography

Mrs. Norma Frayha graduated from AUB with a Master in Business Administration in 1984. She started her career as an external auditor at the Lebanese Accounting Syndicate. Later, she joined the Saudi Lebanese Bank as an audit manager for 9 years. At the same time, she was a part-time accounting instructor at LAU and AUB. In 1990, she joined NDU as a part-time accounting instructor and then as a full timer. Her diverse repertoire of courses extends from financial accounting to advanced accounting. Since 1991 up till now, she is a faculty member at the Faculty of Business Administration and Economics at NDU where she served on several committees at the Faculty level as well as at the University level and utilized her managerial skills with a high level of commitment. Due to her dedication and academic integrity, she has been awarded the respect from the university administration and was therefore granted the best teacher award and promoted to an assistant professor. In addition to her academic experience, she served as the coordinator of the accounting discipline, as an advisor for students majoring in accounting, as well as advisor for the accounting and finance club.
