

Omar J. Sakr

Lecturer

O:B262

T:09.218950, Ext. 2038

E:osakr@ndu.edu.lb

Biography

Omar Sakr is a Responsible Business & HR specialist and an ISO 26000 expert. He has implemented and trained staff on ISO 26000 for social responsibility in various companies in Lebanon, KSA and East Africa. He has managed the CSR program of Shtrumpf restaurants for more than 10 years. A true scout at heart, O. Sakr serves actually as a board member of the Lebanon Mountain Trail Association and works on different rural development projects. He teaches "Ethics & Responsible Business" along with "Domestic Travel & Tourism". He holds a BA in International Affairs from the Lebanese American University, an MBA from Notre Dame University and an MSc in Responsible Tourism Management from Leeds Beckett University – UK.

Peer-reviewed Conference Proceedings

International

- Green Supply Chain Management Adoption in Lebanese Manufacturing industries: A Dual Factor Theory Approach. (IEEE International Conference on Logistics Operations Management, 3rd edition) 2016.

Specialized Reports

ISO 26000 report for ISO Geneva on implementing the standard in Rwanda & East Africa - 2014

Esteemed indicators

Board member of the "Lebanon Mountain Trail Association".
Board member of the "Famille Scoute des Apôtres" - Jounieh.
Ex - Board member of the "Youth Hostels Federation".