

TV Crew of SAT-7 KIDS Shoots an Episode at NDU Museum

Wednesday 6th April 2011, NDU

Reported by Elie Nabhan

A television crew led by Mr. Roy Abou Khalil of SAT-7 KIDS arrived at the NDU museums to film an episode for a program called نكتشف معا

This included filming the collections at both the Stone Wing Museum and the Lebanon Migration Museum.

The team, coming from the station's office in Beirut, were led through the collections of historic photographs, documents, letters, paintings, books, magazines and other original materials with a commentary of LERC's Chief Indexer Mrs. Liliane Haddad.

Mr. Roy Abou Khalil then proceeded to come up to the LERC offices to film more scenes at LERC's library and archives.

LERC's Mrs. L. Haddad (right) with the SAT-7 KIDS at the museum (Apr 2011).