

Thirteen Argentinian Visitors of Lebanese Descent Come “Home” for the First Time

Jasmin Lilian Diab, LERC Staff
June 10, 2016

The Delegation with Ms. Haddad and Ms. Diab at the NDU Main Campus, June 2016

The Lebanese Emigration Research Center (LERC) in cooperation with the Centro Argentino De Investigacion Sobre La Inmigration Libanesa (CAIL) and its founder, Mr. Walter Muller Mujir (LERC Liaison Officer in Argentina) organized a the visit of 13 Lebanese-Argentineans to the center’s Lebanon and Migration Museum on Friday, the 10th of June 2016.

The attendees were exposed to an explanatory presentation that presented by Ms. Liliane Haddad, Senior Indexer and Archivist. The content of the presentation included a detailed explanation of the Center’s archival database, various collections, recent activities and its museum at the NDU Main Campus.

The attendees shared their thoughts and stories about their families' personal experiences with migration, as well as stories and facts from their lives as a Lebanese Community in Argentina.

Their visit was concluded by the distribution of certificates to each visitor to commemorate their visit, as well as with Mr. Muller Mujir presenting Ms. Haddad with a book for the LERC Library on Lebanese Migration.