

On December 16, 2011, Notre Dame University (NDU) President Fr. Walid Moussa announced the Inauguration of University's Silver Jubilee, marking its 25th anniversary since its foundation in 1987. The announcement came during a media gathering held at "Pierre Abu Khater Auditorium, attended by Abbot Fr. Boutros Tarabay, Superior General of the Maronite Order of the Holy Virgin Mary, Press Syndicate Head Mohamed Baalbaki, National News Agency (NNA) Director Laure Sleiman Saab, and a number of media, cultural and academic dignitaries. Father Moussa pronounced in his speech that he seeks the renewal of academic life and addressing all problems and flaws facing the work of the University. Vice President for Cultural Affairs and Public Relations Mr. Suheil Matar pointed out that NDU jubilee is an opportunity to assess the previous stage and to plan for the coming one, outlining headlines of jubilee program.