

Dr. Viviane Naimy Recognized with Beta Gamma Sigma's 2025 Dean of the Year Award

Dr. Viviane Naimy has been named as the Beta Gamma Sigma 2025 Dean of the Year Award recipient. Nominated by the Notre Dame University - Louaize Beta Gamma Sigma chapter, Dean Naimy was selected as the recipient due to her ongoing support of her students, Beta Gamma Sigma chapter and the Society's programs. Dean Naimy was selected as the 2025 winner out of more than 640 universities in 38 countries.

The Beta Gamma Sigma Dean of the Year Award is a merit recognition awarded to one outstanding Dean who both made significant contributions to the success of their chapter and supported the Beta Gamma Sigma mission throughout the course of the academic year.

Beta Gamma Sigma chapters are eligible to nominate their dean for the Dean of the Year Award based on the following criteria:

- Encouraged and honored academic achievements by students of business and management
- Developed Beta Gamma Sigma members as student and professional leaders and celebrated continuing leadership and excellence
- Fostered in Beta Gamma Sigma members an enduring commitment to the founding principles and values of the Society: honor and integrity, and the pursuit of wisdom, earnestness, and service
- Connected Beta Gamma Sigma students and alumni members to each other and to opportunities in their professional lives

Dean of the Year Award recipients have demonstrated extraordinary chapter leadership and have exemplified the highest honor and integrity consistent with the ideals of Beta Gamma Sigma.

About Beta Gamma Sigma (BGS):

Established in 1913, Beta Gamma Sigma is an international honor society which operates exclusively for AACSB-accredited business programs. Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is highly selective, reserved for the top performing business schools and a select group of their students around the world. Members of Beta Gamma Sigma go on to lead—and even create—some of the largest and most successful companies around the globe. Beta Gamma Sigma has inducted more than 950,000 members worldwide since its founding in 1913.
