To celebrate the global Open Education Week, NDU will host a series of open events on March 30 and 31, 2017. Talks and workshops will familiarize the community with ongoing efforts in the adoption of Open Educational Resources (OER) and the use of Creative Commons licenses.

NDU's two-day event is open to the entire NDU community: faculty, students, and staff. With the support of the Students Affairs Office, an information kiosk will be set up during the two days to familiarize students, faculty, and staff about the role of Creative Commons and its mission.
