Biography

Fr. Akram Khoury is a full-time faculty member in the rank of Associate Professor at the Faculty of Humanities at Notre Dame University-Louaize (NDU). He is mostly seen active in the fields of social and family issues since he experiences this on daily bases as a judge at the Spiritual Tribunal. He creates modern teaching strategies for achieving excellence in instruction in all different areas of teaching, thus he seeks for his students the joy of intellectual discovery leading them to the sense of lifelong learning especially in this changing world we live in. Currently, he works in the domain of social marital status searching for a better environment for the children who find themselves unsettled due to parents' problems that lead them to know well the harsh part of life too early. Fr. Akram Khoury who studied Theology, Philosophy and Canon Law and continued his research on the Distribution of Powers in the Catholic Church to acquire his Ph.D. degree at the Lateran University in Italy, is sharing his experience with his students stressing more upon "Marriage and Family", "Protecting Children", Supporting Women", which is discussed in all his lectures and speeches.
