

Pamela Azouri

Senior Lecturer

O: FH 1.51

T: 09.218950, Ext. 5073

E: pazouri@ndu.edu.lb

Biography

Azouri is a full-time faculty member in the rank of Senior Lecturer at the Faculty of Humanities, Department of Religious, Cultural, and Philosophical Studies at NDU. She has also served as a coordinator for all the Sociology courses since 2012, promoting the implementation of the new minor in Sociology, and coordinator of Foreign Languages since 2020. Pamela Azouri studied Political Science at Università degli Studi di Roma Tre, Italy, with specialization in the International Affairs. Her thesis on the Religious Communities and the Role of Women in the Lebanese Society had her combine her knowledge in Political Science, Sociology and Religion. She taught many Political Science, Western Civilization, Sociology and Italian language courses in different universities in Lebanon, in French and English. She also has given lectures in many academic institutions in Lebanon and Italy. Her research primarily involves the studies of gender, minorities, and Human Rights. She is sharing her experience with her students stressing on gender equality, promoting tolerance against any form of discrimination, and the respect of Human Rights.

Exhibitions, Competitions and Creative Work

Local

- Seminar on Domestic Violence in Lebanon (NDU, May 2015)
- Seminars on "Religion in the Public Square" (NDU, Spring-Fall 2016)
- Italian Day of Reading and Culture (NDU-Istituto Italiano di Cultura, Beirut, Fall 2017)
- Panel on Domestic Violence and Human Trafficking (NDU, Spring 2018)