Preamble

The Student Housing facility provided by Notre Dame University-Louaize is a student service dormitory located on the University premises. The Student Housing facility offers a safe, well-maintained, and reasonably priced residence for eligible NDU students notably those who come from overseas or reside in remote areas.

Mission Statement

NDU Student Housing aims at providing and promoting a living environment that is conducive to learning. It encourages residents to adopt a responsible and ethical behavior and use all the provided resources to make the most of their education at NDU. In line with the University's mission, the Student Housing facilities promote diversity, respect for human dignity and rights, and concern for the common good.

Rules and Regulations

The Student Housing facilities at NDU are subject to specific rules and regulations that are binding to all residents. The aim of these rules and regulations is to provide the Student Housing residents with all the security measures which create a safe, healthy, and educational environment.

Management of the Student Housing

The Head of Student Housing, under the direct supervision of the Dean of Students, is responsible for the enforcement of the rules and regulations. (See Appendix Student Housing Rules and Regulations)

Resident Desk Assistant (RDA) / Resident Assistant (RA)

The Student Housing offers two kinds of student assistantship programs:

The RDA is a student tasked to help the front desk staff members in their duties.

The RA is responsible for assisting the Student Housing administration with issues related to student life and to ensure that his/her floor's environment is safe, friendly, and in line with the student housing's rules and regulations.

Orientation and Events

All residents are to attend an orientation session at the beginning of every semester to be briefed by the Head of Student Housing on the rules and safety instructions. He will also organize different activities during the semester that serve the Student Housing and the University's mission.

Violations

Violators of Student Housing Rules and Regulations are subject to serious disciplinary measures as dictated by the Student Code of conduct. These violations could range from written warning to immediate expulsion as deemed appropriate by the Head of Student Housing and the Dean of Students.
