

Program
In Celebration of the Centennial of the International Women's Day 2011
Ecumenical Worship Service

“Women Praying Together for the Well-being of their Families”

Sunday March 6, 2011

- * Word of welcome: Dr. Dima Dabbous-Sensenig, Institute for Women's Studies in the Arab World, Lebanese American University
- * Call for worship and prayer: Pastor Robert Hamd, National Evangelical Church
- * Song/hymn, “How I Can Say”: Audience
- * Reading, The Foreigner: Father Martin McDermott, Afro-Asian Migration Center
- * Song: Afro-Asian Migration Center
- * Reading, The Laborer, Isaiah 32 (In Arabic): Father Boulos Wehbeh, Greek Orthodox Church
- * Hymn, Proverbs 31 (In Arabic): Carol Khater, Institute for Women's Studies in the Arab World, Lebanese American University
- * Reading, The Poor: Pastor Robert Hamd, National Evangelical Church
- * Song & Dance: Heal the World, Migrant women, Caritas Lebanon Migrant Center
- * Testimony of a Child, Caritas Lebanon Migrant Center
- * Songs: “Jesus Loves the Little Children” & “He's Got the Whole World in his Hands”:
Children of Fathers and Sons for Citizenship
- * Testimonies of immigrant women
- * Women of Faith: World Vision Lebanon
- * A Moment of Nostalgia: Middle East Council of Churches
- * Hymn: Audience
- * Final Prayer: Father Martin McDermott, Afro-Asian Migration Center
- * Closing word
- * Reception