

Founder and President of Lebanese Wealth Management Association visits LERC

Tuesday 19th April 2012, LERC, NDU

Reported by Shereen Mahshi

Mr. Maher Raham, Regional Manager at Audi Saradar SAL, visited the Lebanese Emigration Center at NDU to introduce his association The Lebanese Wealth Management Association (LWMA) and to be helped in connections with Lebanese Diasporic communities.

Mr. Raham is a specialist in Wealth Management, Private Banking and Retail Banking and holds a DBA from the American University in the UK with 20 years of banking experience in GCC & Levant, with Standard Chartered, ABN Amro Bank & Central Bank of Lebanon . Mr. Raham has also internship experience at the International Monetary Fund in Washington D.C and at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in addition to several trainings in Hong Kong, Singapore, South-Korea, South-Africa and Indonesia.

Mr. Raham during his visit to LERC library. (April 2012)

Mr. Raham is the founder and current President of the Lebanese Wealth Management Association, which is a non-profit association for Lebanese private bankers, wealth managers, portfolio managers, investment advisors, asset managers, fund managers and trust/estate practitioners. The main objective of LMWA is to promote the wealth management industry in Lebanon, where it offers a platform of know-how for the transformation and migration of best practices as well as a global forum/network for all Lebanese wealth management practitioners.

Mr. Raham met with Mrs. Liliane Haddad, LERC Chief Indexer and Archivist, to whom he explained about LMWA and the association's projects.